JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

This journal aims to publish articles which contribute to the development of philosophy of education both as a major discipline of educational theory and as a distinctive area within philosophy itself.

The first eleven volumes were published under the title of Proceedings of the Philosophy of Education Society of Great Britain. From Volume 12 the new Journal made a slight change in its editorial policy. In the past, contributions had been confined mainly to papers read at the Annual Conference of the Society together with a few papers read at the London or branch meetings, or submitted by members for consideration to the editorial board. Although consideration is still given to papers from these sources, the new Journal now publishes papers from contributors outside the Society and from throughout the world. A complete list of the contents of previous volumes can be found in the final issue of each volume. The journal is published under the auspices of the Philosophy of Education Society of Great Britain.
