

ISSN 0007-0904

THE BRITISH JOURNAL
OF AESTHETICS

VOLUME 27

NUMBER 3

SUMMER 1987

Published for The British Society of Aesthetics
by Oxford University Press

The British Society of Aesthetics

President:

Vice President: RICHARD WOLLHEIM

Hon. Secretary: PHILIP MEESON

Hon. Treasurer: F. B. GOODHEAD

The Society is established to promote study, research and discussion of the fine arts and related types of experience from a philosophical, psychological, sociological, scientific, historical, critical and educational standpoint.

Membership is open to private persons and includes subscription to The British Journal of Aesthetics. Members also receive the Society's periodical Newsletter and invitations to meetings and conferences of the Society. For rates of subscription to the Society see the Application Form herewith. It should be sent with remittance to the Secretary, Mr Philip Meeson, 51 The Martlet, Upper Drive, Hove, E. Sussex, BN3 6NT, to whom all enquiries and correspondence concerning the Society should also be addressed.

The British Journal of Aesthetics

Editorial enquiries, including articles submitted for publication, should be addressed to Dr T. J. Diffey, University of Sussex, School of Cultural and Community Studies, Arts Building, Falmer, Brighton BN1 9QN. Articles should be in typescript (or good photostat thereof), double spaced throughout (i.e. including references and quotations) and with ample margins. They should not ordinarily exceed 5,500 words (excluding brief references at the end but including quotations). References, quotation marks, etc. should conform to the recent style of the Journal. Authors will receive proofs but no alterations from the typescript are permitted in proof. No responsibility is accepted for loss or damage to scripts and these are not returned unless stamped and addressed envelopes or international reply coupons are sent. Copyright in the articles that are accepted becomes the property of the Oxford University Press. Authors receive 20 free offprints and may order more at their cost with return of corrected proofs.

Books for review should be sent to Dr Diffey at the address above. Unsolicited book reviews are not normally accepted.

Subscriptions to the Journal from institutions and other non-members of the Society should be sent to the Journals Subscription Department, Oxford University Press, Walton Street, Oxford OX2 6DP. The rates for 1987 (four issues) are US $55 for subscribers in N. Amer., £28 for those in the UK, and £36 elsewhere. The prices of single issues are N. Amer. $17, UK £9.00, elsewhere £10.00. All dispatches are post free and those to N. Amer. are air-speeded.

THE BRITISH JOURNAL OF AESTHETICS

VOLUME 27 NO. 3

SUMMER 1987

CONTENTS

Some New Problems in Perspective	JOHN FISHER	201
Pictorial Representation: A Matter of Resemblance	KAREN NEANDER	213
Some Current Philosophical Theories of Pictorial Representation	DIETER PEETZ	227
Humour, Laughter and the Structure of Thought	MICHAEL CLARK	238
Looking Again at Susanne Langer's Expressionism	SISTER MARY FRANCIS SLATTERY	247
Hans-Robert Jauss and the Exemplarity of Art	DEBORAH COOK	259
Szondi's Theory of Modern Drama	STEVE GILES	268
Zemach on Paintings	JERROLD LEVINSON	278
Book Reviews		284
Books Received		298

BOOK REVIEWS

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| Aristotle's Poetics : Stephen Halliwell | SALIM KEMAL 284 |
| Art and Beauty in the Middle Ages : Umberto Eco | DIANÉ COLLINSON 286 |
| Hume and the Heroic Portrait: Studies in
Eighteenth-Century Imagery : Edgar Wind | PETER JONES 287 |
| Art and the Absolute: A Study of Hegel's Aesthetics :
William Desmond | MICHAEL MORAN 288 |
| Narration in Light: Studies in Cinematic Point of View :
George M. Wilson; Narration in the Fiction Film :
David Bordwell | BARRY SALT 290 |
| Metaphor : David E. Cooper | DAVID NOVITZ 293 |
| The Aesthetics of Visual Poetry, 1914-1928 :
Willard Bohn | RICHARD SHUSTERMAN 295 |
| Symmetry: Unifying Human Understanding :
Edited by István Hargittai | PHILIP MEESON 297 |

Members of the British Society of Aesthetics mourn the death of Harold Osborne, their President, who died in mid March shortly after his eighty-second birthday; their grief is shared by his many friends and scholars throughout the world. We shall carry a fuller notice in a later number.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

JOHN FISHER is Professor of Philosophy at Temple University, Philadelphia, U.S.A. and Editor of The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism.

KAREN NEANDER was until recently a tutor in Philosophy at the University of Adelaide, Australia. She is now at the University of Wollongong. Her main areas of interest are aesthetics, philosophy of psychology and the cognitive sciences, and philosophy of biology.

DIETER PEETZ is Lecturer in Philosophy at the University of Nottingham.

MICHAEL CLARK is Reader in Philosophy at the University of Nottingham.

SISTER MARY FRANCIS SLATTERY has been an editor, reviewer and lecturer, and has taught literary theory at George Washington University, Fordham University and the College of Mount Saint Vincent.

DEBORAH COOK is Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Queen's University, Kingston, Canada. Her publications are all in the area of continental philosophy.

STEVE GILES is Lecturer in German at the University of Nottingham and author of The Problem of Action in Modern European Drama (1981).

JERROLD LEVINSON is Associate Professor of Philosophy at the University of Maryland, U.S.A.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Twenty-First National Conference of the British Society of Aesthetics will be held at College Hall, Malet Street, London from 18 to 20 September 1987. All enquiries should be addressed to the Honorary Secretary of the Society, Mr Philip Meeson, whose address will be found on the inside front cover of this number.

The XIth International Congress of Aesthetics will be held in Nottingham, England from 29 August to 2 September 1988 on the theme 'Tradition and Innovation in Aesthetics'. Programme topics will be 'Aesthetics and the Analytic Tradition'; 'Aesthetics and the Kantian and Phenomenological Traditions'; 'Aesthetics and Critical Theory'; 'Aesthetics and Cultural Theory'; 'Aesthetics and the Arts'. The Congress Organizer, Richard Woodfield, is making a call for papers. Such offers and all enquiries concerning the Congress should be sent to him at Trent Polytechnic, School of Modern Studies, Burton Street, Nottingham, NG1 4BU. Telephone Nottingham (0602) 418248.

The Forty-Fifth Annual Meeting of the American Society for Aesthetics will be held on 28-31 October 1987 at the University of Missouri in Kansas city. Please send requests for information to the Programme Chair, Allen Carlson, Dept of Philosophy, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, T6G 2E5, Canada.